Hello, my name is Nihilsciens. I, as many others, started reading Drifting Net Café only to be disappointed by the lack of new chapters. That's why I'd try to use my limited 2 years of Japanese studies to try and translate one or two chapters to spark new interest in this piece. As mentioned, my Japanese isn't the best, so preferably other people will continue this manga after I'm done, reading the Kanjis just takes too long time :)

Raws were downloaded from "http://excnn.com/", thank you!

Thanks for being attentive!
